2019 European Heritage Volunteers Projects and Partner Projects all over Europe

Kosovo Council for the Cultural Heritage

Parliament of Kosovo according to Law for Cultural Heritage established KCCH in 2009. It cooperates with all local and international institutions, expressing its willingness and interest to advancement and preservation of cultural heritage in Republic of Kosovo applying best practices and implementation of the international criteria/standards. Some of the main tasks and authorization of KCCH, include assessment of cultural heritage assets for permanent protection designation, evaluation of cultural heritage projects, identification of priority measures for cultural heritage, etc. KCCH is multiethnic institution, which reflects country's cultural diversity.

Kosovo Council for the Cultural Heritage (KCCH) in cooperation with University of Pristina "Hasan Pristina" by this project agreement with European Heritage Volunteers (EHV) enable participation of students and young professionals of Republic of Kosovo in voluntary projects in cultural heritage.
